We're celebrating Christmas in July and you could win!

This week was packed full of Christmas previews. I know, thinking about snow and Santa at the height of summer seems pretty depressing, but it's kind of neat to get a sneak peek at all the great items that will be in-store for the holidays. So far I'm swooning over Erin Tracy Designs jewellery, especially this ring, feathered accessories from Headmistress, Dermalogica's sensitized skin kit and these amazing collars from Marthe Aime, which you can add atop a tank top or simple dress to totally transform your look.

Anyways, in the spirit of Christmas (in July) we're giving you the chance to win an amazing beauty prize pack from Quo Cosmetics containing the four summer must-haves pictured below (I'm personally addicted to the Quo Pleasant Surprise Lip Gloss).

Just comment on this post and tell us what you think makes the month of July beautiful. Our web editorial team (Laura, myself and Grace) will select the winning entry next Friday, July 23rd.
